

House Management Policy

Murdoch University Melville Football Club will manage and operate its bar premises situated at Len Shearer Reserve, 37 Marcus Avenue, Booragoon in a responsible, friendly and professional manner to the satisfaction of members and guests and to minimise harm or ill health to its customers due to the use or consumption of alcohol.

Code of Conduct

Murdoch University Melville Football Club is committed to responsible serving practices inclusive of:

- Controlling drunken persons by:
 - Refusing them entry to the premises or removing them from the premises;
 - Not providing them with liquor when on the premises; and
 - Taking appropriate care to protect both them and others they may come into contact with.
- Controlling juveniles by refusing them entry unless they are accompanied by a responsible adult, or on the premises for the purpose of obtaining a meal, whilst on the premises they will not be provided with alcohol or permitted access to bar servery areas.

The responsible promotion of liquor

- Avoiding disturbing the amenity of the local area by respecting the rights of neighbours and by encouraging customers to do the same.
- Addressing any complaints from customers and or nearby residents expeditiously and reasonably.
- Caring for members and guests properly by establishing harm minimisation strategies to enable members, guests and staff to enjoy themselves without causing harm to themselves or others and attempt to arrange safe transport home in the appropriate circumstances.
